156th St. & Broadway,
New York.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with telephone conversation today, I am sending you under separate cover, seven of the medals which were presented to the members of the Sheriff's Jury of New York, at their annual banquets.

I trust these may be an addition to your collection, as I am sure Mr. Alex. M. Hudnut, who for years served on the Jury, would be pleased to know that you have them.

Mr. Hudnut became ill last November, and has not been able to return to the office. In clearing out his desk, his Sister asked me to find a welcome recipient for these medals.

Thanking you for your attention,

I am
Yours sincerely,

(Miss) Florence Killman

Former secretary to Mr. Hudnut.
